Pioneering a Sustainable Future with Excellence

(Hong Kong - 18 August 2023) "Quamnet Green Leadership ESG Awards 2023" organized by Quamnet.com is now open for applications. There are three categories of awards: Responsible Investment, People Development, and Environment & Community.

"Quamnet Green Leadership ESG Awards 2023" Pioneering a Sustainable Future with Excellence

Since its establishment, Quamnet has been focusing on the field of finance and economics, and has always been an industry-leading financial portal. The "Quamnet Green Leadership ESG Awards 2023" is an excellent opportunity for companies to demonstrate their commitment to sustainability and responsible business practices. The award aims to recognize and honor the achievements of Hong Kong companies in environmental, social and governance (ESG). The event brings together industry leaders, experts and industry innovators to share ideas, practices and insights on ESG.

The theme for this year's awards, "Pioneering a Sustainable Future with Excellence," highlights the importance of incorporating ESG principles into corporate actions. By embracing ESG practices, companies have the opportunity to contribute to the creation of healthier, fairer, and more prosperous societies. The "Quamnet Green Leadership ESG Awards 2023" not only acknowledges the accomplishments of companies in integrating ESG practices, but also applauds their efforts in fostering a sustainable world that is prosperous, fair, and beneficial for future generations, all while advancing their own business endeavors.

The Hong Kong Quality Assurance Agency (HKQAA) is responsible for the evaluation of this award. The Hong Kong Quality Assurance Agency was established by the Hong Kong government in 1989. The professional team of the HKQAA has a wealth of international and industry knowledge and experience to provide comprehensive conformity assessment services. As one of the top third-party certification bodies in the region, HKQAA has about 70% market share in the region, providing comprehensive conformity assessment and certification services for the market.

Ms. Denise Cheung, Chairlady of the organizing committee of Quamnet Green ESG Leadership Awards, said: "The awards aims to recognize the persistent efforts of leading companies in the ESG field. Award-winning organizations need to actively implement the concept of sustainable development in corporate policies and actions. Enterprises not only need to adopt sustainable and responsible business practices, but also need to be excellent in this area and set high
